DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application is a 371 of PCT/JP03/03846.

The preliminary amendment filed 7/7/2004 amending claims 6, 8-10, 14-17, 20-22 has been entered.

Claims 1-22 are pending.

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group, I claim(s) 1-7, drawn to an isolated polypeptide β 1,6-N-acetylglucosaminyltransferase and neovascularization accelerator comprising the polypeptide.

Group, II claim(s) 8-13, drawn to a method screening neovascularization inhibitor by using polypeptide.

Group, III claim(s) 14-19, drawn to a compound having neovascularization inhibiting activity.

Group, IV claim(s) 20-22, drawn to an antibody that binds to the polypeptide and method of using antibody and a kit.

Art Unit: 1652

2. The inventions listed as Groups I - IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The polypeptide β 1,6-N-acetylglucosaminyltransferase of Group I, and antibody of the polypeptide Group IV are each unrelated polypeptide with distinct amino acid sequences. The only shared technical feature of these groups is that they all relate to polynucleotide encoding a polypeptide β 1,6-N-acetylglucosaminyltransferase. However, this shared technical feature is not a "special technical feature" as defined by PCT Rule 13.2 as it does not define a contribution over the art. According to the search report (PCT form 210), a DNA encoding a polypeptide β 1,6-N-acetylglucosaminyltransferase is known in the art (EP585109 A2; Suntory, Ltd., see IDS). Thus, a DNA encoding a polypeptide β 1,6-N-acetylglucosaminyltransferase does not make contribution over the prior art. In addition, Taniguchi et al. ("Implication of N-acetylglucosaminyltransferases III and V in cancer: gene regulation and signaling mechanism", Biochim Biophys Acta, 1999, 1455(2-3): 287-300, Review; see IDS) teach N-acetylglucosaminyltransferases V (GnT-V) play a pivotal role in the processing of N-linked glycoproteins, and are highly involved in cancer progression and metastasis.

3. The polypeptide of Group I and compound of Group III are independent and distinct.

4. The antibody of Group IV does not have unity of invention with methods of screening neovascularization inhibitor as antibody of Group IV neither made nor used by the method of Group II.

5. The compound of Group III and antibody of Group IV are independent and distinct.

37 CFR 1.475 does not provide for multiple products and/or methods within a single application. Therefore, inventions of Group I - IV lack unity of invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re

Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b),” 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.
